Description of the task

Document and communicate the UX design solutions, like a professional. In each assignment, the specific requirements for documentation of your work and your workflow are described.

You have continuously, collected and curated your materials in a document (Google Doc) where you also have added descriptions, annotations and reflections on your work and the process. Similar to a log. This document will become your theme documentation. Now, refine and finish it!

Requirements

The following structure must be used in the brief:

- User brief
- User research
    - Test design
    - Test results
    - Test recordings
    - Research - client, target audience, competition, and other.
- Design sprint
    - Map
    - Sketch
    - Decide
    - Prototype
    - Test and Learn
- Web Prototype
    - Code (link to GitHub repository)
    - User tests (test design & findings)
    - Technical (validation & performance) tests
- Design sprint: Native app
    - Pitch (proof and convince)
    - Prototype (test and demonstrate)
    - UI Kits (show and explain)
    - Feedback (summarise and describe focus in the next and improved iteration)
    - Sprint documentations incl. long term goal you aim for!

You are expected to be both descriptive, illustrative and concise in your communication. So, consider how best to let the reader understand and see the what, how and why of your process!
